The Tale of Freddie Firefly
 By Arthur Scott Bailey (1877-1949)

"He was able to draw a deep breath again as they reached the field of red clover, where Peppery Polly Bumblebee settled quickly upon a clover-top and began sucking up the sweet nectar with her long tongue. For some time she worked busily without saying a word. And indeed, how could she have spoken with her tongue buried deep in the heart of a clover blossom?" (From The Tale of Freddie Firefly)
